Installation

1. Connect each of your USB peripheral devices to a USB peripheral port on the switch.

2. Connect a USB port from each of your computers to a USB host port on the switch using the USB-A to USB-B cables.

3. Connect the Remote port selector to the Remote port selector input on the switch.

Notes:
- The switch does not require an external power source as it draws power from the computer that it is connected to. If you have a special application that requires additional power, such as a higher powered USB peripherals, connect a 5V source to the power adapter port (USB Micro-B).
- The switch does not require any drivers. However, the peripherals you've connected through the switch may require drivers. Please ensure that you've installed any required drivers for your peripherals on each computer that's connected through the switch.

Operation

To switch between which computer is active:

1. Press the button on the Remote port selector. The Active host LED illuminates to indicate the active computer.

2. Press the button on the Remote port selector repeatedly, to select the next computer in succession, until the desired computer is selected.

About the LED indicators

The switch features Active host LEDs. The following table outlines the meaning of the LED behavior.

LED behavior	Meaning
The LED is illuminated	The computer associated with this LED is selected.
The LED is not illuminated	The computer associated with this LED is not selected.
